Moral Theology/Ethics Area
Invite All to Attend a Public Lecture by

Russell Hittinger, Ph.D.

“Natural Law and Public Discourse: The Legacies of Josef Ratzinger”

Tuesday, March 24, 2015
5:30 p.m.
Reception to Follow
Monsignor Stephen J. Happel Room Caldwell Hall

Russell Hittinger is the William K. Warren Chair of Catholic Studies at the University of Tulsa, where he is also a Research Professor in the School of Law. His books and articles have appeared on the University of Notre Dame Press, Oxford University Press, Columbia University Press, Fordham University Press, the Review of Metaphysics, the Review of Politics, several law journals (American and European). His current work, The Popes and the Modern Caesars: Magisterial Teachings on the State, 1789-2005 will be published by Yale University Press. He is one of two lay academics in the world to serve as an ordinarius in two Pontifical academies. In 1994 he was appointed by John Paul II to the Pontifical Academy of St. Thomas Aquinas, and in 2009 by Benedict XVI to the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences. This Spring he begins a three-year stint as Dean of the College of Fellows for the Dominican School of Philosophy and Theology, Graduate Theological Union (Berkeley).

To request accommodations for individuals with disabilities, please call (202) 319-5683.