This doctoral seminar will examine Newman’s theological “view” as it emerged in The Idea of a University and An Essay on the Development of Christian Doctrine. Students enrolled in the seminar are expected to prepare and present a research paper on some aspect of Newman’s theology.

Seminar Schedule:

1. Newman’s life and time (August 27, September 10)
2. Newman’s spirituality: discussion with Keith Beaumont (September 17)
3. The Idea of a University (September 24, October 1, October 9)
5. Student presentations: each presentation should be a preliminary draft of a research paper in progress; the presentation should be patterned on a conference presentation of approximately 20-25 minutes with 20-25 minutes for questions and comments (November 5, 12, 19, 26). Papers may be based on one of Newman’s conferences, themes, or “notes.”
6. An overview of Newman’s theology (December 3).

Required Texts:

- The books marked with an asterisk are available online (www.newmanreader.org); the editions listed are recommended for those wishing to obtain their personal copies.

Course Goals:
The primary goal of this seminar is to provide an introduction to Newman’s theology through a careful analysis of selections from his writings.

Goals for Student Learning
In addition to acquiring a basic appreciation of Newman’s theology, this course provides students with an opportunity to present their research for critique by their peers in a way similar to a professional conference; students are also encouraged to prepare papers of publishable quality.

Course Requirements
   The topic should deal with some aspect of Newman’s theology.
   The research paper should follow the style of Newman Studies Journal.
[3] Class participation including suggestions for and critique of student presentations.

Bibliography
The corpus of Newman’s writings is equivalent to one volume for each year of his life (1801-1890). Most of Newman’s published works, as well as biographical information and pictures of Newman are available at: www.newmanreader.org. The complete texts of Newman’s writings that have been scanned into the electronic Newman Research Library are available at: http://www.newmanreader.org/newmanresearch/. Specific terms or phrases from Newman’s writings can be easily found by accessing the “Newman Kiosk”; students are encouraged to apply for access (gratis); specific terms or phrases from Newman’s writings can also be found by accessing www.Google.com and then entering: «Newman word/phrase» site: newmanreader.org».

Catholic University expectations and policies

Academic honesty: Academic honesty is expected of all CUA students. Faculty are required to initiate the imposition of sanctions when they find violations of academic honesty, such as plagiarism, improper use of a student’s own work, cheating, and fabrication.

The following sanctions are presented in the University procedures related to Student Academic Dishonesty (from http://policies.cua.edu/academicundergrad/integrityprocedures.cfm):

> “The presumed sanction for undergraduate students for academic dishonesty will be failure for the course. There may be circumstances, however, where, perhaps because of an undergraduate student’s past record, a more serious sanction, such as suspension or expulsion, would be appropriate. In the context of graduate studies, the expectations for academic honesty are greater, and therefore the presumed sanction for dishonesty is likely to be more severe, e.g., expulsion. ...In the more unusual case, mitigating circumstances may exist that would warrant a lesser sanction than the presumed sanction.”

Please review the complete texts of the University policy and procedures regarding Student Academic Dishonesty, including requirements for appeals, at http://policies.cua.edu/academicundergrad/integrity.cfm and http://policies.cua.edu/academicundergrad/integrity.cfm.

Other Policies or Expectations. Note your policies or expectations (e.g. Attendance and punctuality policy, Participation expectation, note re: cell phones, timeliness on papers, form of submission of papers electronic vs. hard copy, policy on making up (or not) quizzes, tests etc.)

Campus Resources for student support:

Accommodations for students with disabilities: Any student who feels s/he may need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability should contact the instructor privately to discuss specific needs. Please contact Disability Support Services (at 202 319-5211, room 207 Pryzbyla Center) to coordinate reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities. To read about the services and policies, please visit the website: http://disabilitysupport.cua.edu.

University grades:

The University grading system is available at http://policies.cua.edu/academicundergrad//gradesfull.cfm#II for undergraduates and http://policies.cua.edu/academicgrad//gradesfull.cfm#iii for graduate students. Reports of grades in courses are available at the end of each term on http://cardinalstation.cua.edu.
