“What Made Synods 2014 and 2015 So Interesting?: Collegiality and Synodality”

His Eminence,
Cardinal Wilfrid Napier, O.F.M.
Archbishop of Durban

Thursday, February 18, 2016
4:30 p.m.
Caldwell Auditorium

ABOUT THE SPEAKER:
Cardinal Wilfrid Napier has been archbishop of Durban, South Africa since 1992. After being ordained a Franciscan priest in 1970, he worked for nearly three years in the Parish of Lusikisiki and did pastoral work for five years in Tabankulu.

In 2015, Cardinal Napier served as a Co-President of the Ordinary Synod on the Family and was appointed by Pope Francis to serve on the newly constituted Council for Economic Affairs to oversee and reform Vatican finances.
