Historical and Systematic Theology Area

All are Invited to Attend the Following Lecture by Dr. Tianyue Wu:

“Secularization, China, and the Catholic Church: A Chinese Response to Charles Taylor”

Monday, February 10, 2014
4:00 – 5 p.m.
Happel Room, Caldwell 100

Dr. Tianyue Wu is Associate Professor in Ancient and Medieval Philosophy at Peking University as well as Vice Director of the Centre for Classical Studies at Peking University, China. Dr. Wu’s areas of expertise include Ancient and Medieval Philosophy, Moral Psychology, and Philosophy of Emotion. One of professor Wu’s recent books is titled Will and Freedom: A Moral Psychological Reading of Augustine’s Concept of Voluntas (2010).

Reception to Follow

To request accommodations for individuals with disabilities, please call (202) 319-5683